FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

◆ What classes should I take?

- ◆ We have two class options for Encore Scholars depending on your goals and time commitment.
- ◆ Traditional Courses – Traditional courses integrate Encore Scholars with traditional students. These classes meet for a full semester, 2-3 days a week. They can be taken for credit or audited.
- ◆ Mini Courses – Mini Courses are specially designed for Encore Scholars. These classes meet once a week for 5-8 week sessions.

◆ What is the difference between credit and audit?

- ◆ Taking a class for credit requires you to abide by the syllabus and professor expectations. You must complete all projects, tests and papers and you will receive a grade at the end of the semester.
- ◆ Auditing a class exempts you from projects, tests and papers. You can attend the course at your leisure. You will not receive a grade but your transcript will reflect that you attended the course.

◆ When are Encore classes offered?

- ◆ Encore classes are offered every fall and spring semester. Registration takes place in January and August.

◆ What can I do with my student ID?

- ◆ Your student ID card will get you free tickets to athletic events, the Presidential Concert series, theatre productions and the campus recreation center.

◆ Do I have to be over 60?

- ◆ Yes, you must be 60 or over to enroll as an Encore Scholar.

◆ Can I complete my degree as an Encore student?

- ◆ Encore is solely an educational enrichment program. In order to complete your degree you must enroll as a traditional student through Admissions.
