

C VID-19

The Lee University Health Clinic is continually monitoring updates and recommendations regarding the current Coronavirus (COVID-19) situation. LUHC's goal is to raise awareness about COVID-19 without increasing fear, and share accurate information about how the virus spreads.

Rachel Coffey, BSN, RN, director of the Health Clinic, is part of a campus wide task force assembled to plan and prepare for any suspected COVID-19 infections.

Below please find links to reputable sites for more information; educating ourselves will help us prepare and not panic. FACTS NOT FEAR. The Health Clinic is following the recommended steps given by the Tennessee Department of Health along with the CDC.

You may call the Tennessee Coronavirus hotline, a public information line, between 10:00am-10:00pm CST/ 7 days/ week. #877-857-2945.
